South Dakota State University Project Assistance Request

The Manager reviewed a draft proposal from Van Kelly, Director of the South Dakota State University (SDSU) Water Resources Institute (WRI), for the District to contribute toward the support of water resource faculty at the University. The Manager noted that there are shrinking academic resources available on water issues from state universities. For example, the recent decision by SDSU to fill the position of Cooperative Extension Service Water Resource Specialist with a specialist in air quality issues. Dave German, WRI, who has been one of the leading sources of lake information and research in the state, will be retiring within the next 15 months. These two positions have often served as the point of contact between those interested in water resource protection and management and the academic community.

The draft proposal would involve the District making a modest pledge of assistance/support for a water resource specialist, which Dr. Kelly believes might well sway the balance for decision makers at SDSU. The material provided to date was a position description/announcement. The Manager noted that it is largely a description for an agricultural engineering position, with only passing mention of water issues. He indicated that before promoting District involvement, the description would need to be markedly altered. He would visit with Dr. Kelly and request alteration before further Board consideration.

2010 Water Development District Director Area Revisions

The Manager reviewed the proposed revisions to the Administrative Rules of South Dakota (ARSD) 74:05:05:20, which contain the descriptions of the District director areas. The revisions are the result of legislation passed during the 2008 session, and will redefine director areas in terms of population, rather than rural and municipal areas. The initial revisions, adopted in June of this year, have been found to be practically impossible to implement in Minnehaha and Lincoln Counties due to post-2000 changes in voting precincts. The issues have been addressed and alternate descriptions, which the County Auditors and the Secretary of State accept, have been developed. A public hearing on the revised rules will be held by the SD Board of Water and natural resources in Pierre on November 6th.

EDWDD Conservation Assistance Program

The Manager reviewed the recommendations developed by an ad hoc committee consisting of Chairman Eggers and Directors Flemming and Johnson for District support of area conservation districts. The District Board of Directors has included in the 2010 operating budget a block of funds which they intend to direct toward support of area conservation districts ($100,000 total, to be allocated at the rate of $10,000 per county). These funds are not intended to be a one-time allocation, but rather a long-term commitment of support.

The Committee has proposed to target the assistance toward covering administrative expenses of the conservation districts. Every conservation district has an Office Manager they need to pay, supplies and materials they need for day-to-day operations, and so forth. By helping to offset these basic costs, the conservation districts would be able to direct their other fiscal resources toward projects and activities. A memorandum of understanding (MOU) will be developed between the District and each conservation district. The Manager indicated he would have a draft MOU available for Board consideration at the December meeting.

Public Outreach & Water Quality Monitoring - Jeremy Hinke gave the updates on the Districts Big Sioux Water Festival and Dakota Water Watch. The traveling trunks are now in wide distribution, including the new second Lakes & Streams Trunk set. Registrations for the 2010 event are due November 1st. To date, fourth grade classes from over 15 schools have signed on. Mr. Hinke and Deb Springman were presenters at the Northern prairie Water Fest in Aberdeen in September.

Support for the Dakota Water Watch program is to be included in the next Statewide Nonpoint Source Information and Education Program. Budget figures, activities and milestones have been developed and submitted for inclusion in the grant request. Ms. Springman is looking into holding a state-wide volunteer monitoring workshop or conference this winter. A new monitor was trained to gather information in and around Lake Hendricks. Work has begun on the year-end report.

Central Big Sioux River Watershed Project - The Manager presented a report on the activities of the Central Big Sioux River Watershed Project. Project Manager Roger Strom continues to work with several landowners to finalize conservation easements in Hamlin, Moody and Minnehaha Counties. An easement signing is scheduled for October 22nd in Watertown for property in northern Hamlin County. Formal offers have been sent to three other landowners, with a fourth pending the completion of a cultural resource assessment. A riparian area management (RAM) contracts have been executed in Hamlin and Moody Counties. Work proceeds on the Jared Hanisch animal waste management system near Humboldt. Dirt work is completed, but gravel and concrete work is on hold pending drier conditions. The final water quality sampling on the Big Sioux River will take place on October 20th. The Third Quarter project reimbursement request was submitted in early October.
